The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manutacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

POULTRY AND EGGS.

A great deal of experience has taught us that success in the poultry yard depends as much upon good general management as upon any one thing. When the eggs of any hens indifferently are kept for the purpose of raising young chickens, and when little attention is paid to the particular hens reserved for laying, it will in general be found that the profits are small, and the quality of fowls raised rapidly deteriorates.

In addition to the usual plan of selecting only the best formed and quietest hens for breeding purposes, we have found it of advantage to pay constderable attention to the age of the fowls which we retain. For the production of eggs for domestic consumption we never keep hens beyond their second year, but for raising chickens we have found it to be poor policy to employ eggs laid by hens less than two years old. We have always found that the chickens from the older hens are more easily raised, have stronger constitutions, and turn out every way better than those raised from eggs of younger hens. The eggs consequently cost more, but this extra expense is but a small item on the number of eggs usually employed for hatching.

In order to have eggs during winter, beside the usual appliances of meat, lime, sand, bones, &c., we always make sure of having some very early chickens. The pullets of these will commence to lay in October or November, and will lay throughout the winter. Next season we draft a few of the very best of these and keep them as breeders, the balance being fattened and killed off as soon as they have positively ceased laying. At this time it is wonderful how rapidly hens take on fat. We often see accounts of hens not laying because they are too fat. When considering the ease with which hens fatten as soon as they cease laying for the season, we have often thought that the true way to state the case is that they fattened because they did not lay. At this age they are delightfully tender and juicy, and we would about as soon think of fattening a cow that gave twenty quarts of milk a day as to think of fattening a laying hen.—Country Gentlemen.

MALE BREEDING ANIMALS.

The good of every individual, man, woman, and child, in the State would be as directly affected by an improvement in our breeding stock as in any other increase in our productive industries or great internal improvement. It is the business of the State to foster industries, and to carry out or promote improvements. Now, there is not a State in the Union in which there are not five, if we may not say ten, poor bulls, stallions, boars, and rams, to one tolerably good one. If in a dairy region only thoroughbred bulls were used, farmers would soon get in the way of using only those of good dairy breed, and we venture to say that the yield of milk would be increased on an average 2 quarts per day during the milking season. With 50 cows this would make 24,000 quarts, worth, at 3 cts. per quart, $720, which is clear gain to the farmer, and so much more taxable property in the community. It becomes a question of no little importance for Agricultural Societies, Boards of Agriculture, and the legislators of the various States to discuss, if by encouragement or taxation they may not be able to effect some such change. Suppose, for instance, that a State should tax all bulls twenty dollars a head, and allow the officers of the State Board of Agriculture to remit the tax on all which came up to a certain standard of excellence. How long would it be before an essential change would be observed in the whole character of our neat stock and dairy products? It is certainly a question of great interest, how the State may best secure the advantage to accrue both to its treasury and to its citizens by the general use of well-bred or thoroughbred male animals as sires.—Agriculturist.

A correspondent of an English paper describes as follows the method by which a rat stole eggs from a shelf.—"Having concealed myself, I soon saw a rat mount the shelf, nearly three feet from the ground, take an egg between his claws and break at one end a hole large enough to insert the end of his jaw; clasping the egg against his stomach with his two paws, and steadying it with his jaw in the hole he had made, he walked backwards to the edge of the shelf, and then deliberately threw himself down, so that he fell with his back on the ground, and the egg nestled at his stomach. He turned over, and was decamping with the egg, but I stopped him and recovered it, unbroken, save the little hole at one end in which he had inserted his jaw."

The days come and pass, and life is soon ended. Is it worth while, then, to hate or be at enmity with each other? Life has little enough to give, and we should give our fellow pilgrims all the charity and love poor humanity is capable of. Time will glide swiftly by, and the young and joyous will soon be knocking at the gloomy portals of the land of silence. Then will the mind wander back, and through the famished years will gleam the white faces of those we hated. Will the retrospect soothe our last hours? No. Then is it not better to love than to hate?

"I don't believe it's any use, this vaccinnation," said a Yankee. "I had a child vaccinated, and fell out of a winder a week arter and got killed.

"Let us have peace," as the fellow said when he locked up his wife in the coal celler.

SETTING THE RIVER ON FIRE.

Joe Walter was one day fishing in the river. He had fastened his boat to a drift-log that had anchored itself a few rods from the shore, and on this he was standing when Solomon Ary, a clever colored man, came along the river road.

When Joe saw Solomon, he began to cry out lustily, "It's going to rain! See that big black cloud! It's going to rain!" This he repeated several times in a provoking way. Solomon passed on without seeming to notice the unkind jest.

A miller who was at work near by, heard what Joe said, and exclaimed, "Joe hold your tongue. If you were my boy, I would set you at work. An industrious boy is less likely to be ill-mannered, and to speak unkindly.—You are one of those boys that will never set the river on fire."

Joe was a little confused, but he said, half saucily, "Yes I will."

In a few moments some round shining patches came floating down to the place where he stood.

"Oil," he said to himself, and kept on fishing.

Soon larger patches of oil floated past, and looking around, he saw that the river above him was more than half covered with it. This appearance was no new thing on that river, for there were coil-oil depots, and several oil factories up stream, and the escape of the refuse and other oils would sometimes completely cover the surface of of the water with a scum.

Joe drew in his line, for it was no use fishing. The oily patches he called floating islands, and he watched them as they grew larger, and united one with another, forming, to his imagination, a continent, stretching from bank to bank.

"How smooth the river is," said he. Then a bright idea struck him. "The miller said I will never set the river on fire. This oil will burn, I should think. I have matches here; I'll try it."

Joe struck a light; and touched the match to the oil, which blazed up at once, much to his amusement and gratification.

The flames spread with great rapidity, and soon Joe's delight gave place to sensations of grief and terror.

The scene was awfully grand. The river was one mass of flame, above which rolled upward volumes of black smoke in thick clouds. The heat along the banks, which were lashed continually by the billows of flame, was intense, and the houses and stores that stood by the river were in the greatest danger. Great crowds gathered at the place; consternation reigned among the people; firemen and parties of men ran here and there, and some of them tried, by means of engines, to keep the fire down; but it is impossible to extinguish an oil fire with water, and, indeed, oil fires are the most difficult to master.

Where was Joe all this while?

Feeling the flames, he threw himself into the bottom of his boat; but that was in danger, every moment, of taking fire. It is impossible to keep himself from being burnt, and what was quite as alarming, the turbid smoke threatened to stifle him. Once or twice he raised his head above the boat's edge, only to feel the fury of the fire; and so dense was the smoke that nothing could be seen on shore. Overcome with fear and pain and difficulty of breathing, he sank down unconscious.

When he came to himself he found himself on shore, surrounded by a crowd, some of whom were preparing to carry him home, and among them stood Solomon Ary, a very interested spectator. Joe looked to the river, the smoke had partly cleared away; there lay his boat, burning to the water's edge.

And to Solomon Ary did Joe owe his life. Returning by the river's bank, just as the fire was kindled, Solomon saw the peril in which his young persecutor stood and undertook to save him. He had heard that an oil fire on the river was sometimes checked by means of a boat, cutting off the flames above from those below; and having found a boat he managed to get it off, though to reach the boy he must pass through a sea of fire, and put in jeopardy his own life. The miller, who understood his movements, jumped into the boat with him, while all wondered to see the two men rowing so fast amid waves of flame and clouds of smoke.

Finding Joe lying in his boat, they lifted him into theirs, and with a few burns which they did not mind, they bore him still unconscious, to the shore.

Joe suffered many stings from the burns which covered his face and limbs, but these were not so bad as the stings of an accusing conscience. He felt much mortification in remembering how foolish and unfeeling he had been, and the long weeks of sickness and confinement that followed, were spent in resolutions to live a better life, and in thinking what return he should make to Solomon for his noble action in his behalf.

"You did set the river on fire, my boy," said the miller when he came to see him; "you made a big noise in the world. But if you keep these resolutions, you will make a greater noise in a better way; for who knows, in this free country, whether you will not be a great man, if you live? And I am glad to find you mean, hereafter, to be kind to every body; for this lesson you have learned, you will be likely to keep in your memory; for if I am not very much mistaken, it has been pretty well burnt in."

THE DAUGHTER AT HOME.—To be able to get dinner, to sweep the room, to make a garment, to tend a baby, would add greatly to the list of a young lady's accomplishments. When can we behold a more lovely sight than the eldest daughter of a house, standing in the sweet simplicity of her new womanhood by the side of her toiling care-worn mother, to relieve and aid her? Now she presides at the table, now directs in the kitchen, now amuses the fretting babies, now diverts a half score of little folks in the library. She can assist her younger brothers in their studies, read the newspapers to her weary father, or smooth the aching brow of her fevered mother. Always ready with a helping hand and a cheerful smile for every emergency. She is an angel of love, and a blessing to the home circle. Should she be called out of it to originate a home of her own, would she be any less loving or self-sacrificing?

DODGING A HATTER.—An individual purchased a hat in a shop kept by a tradesman by the name of Dodgion. The article was got in his absence and the purchaser left the shop entirely forgetting (by mistake, of course) to pay for the aforesaid "tile." The tradesman, upon hearing the facts, started after him, in hot pursuit of the delinquent. Upon overhauling him, the following scene occurred:

"See here, sir I wish to speak to you."

"Move on."

"I am Dodgion the hatter."

"That's my fix."

"I tell you I am Dodgion the hatter."

"So am I; I'm dodgin' the hatter, too—and very likely we are both of us dodgin' the same chap."

The scene ended with a "striking" tableau, in which Mr. Diddler found himself considerably "mixed up" with "Dodgion the hatter."

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.—To-day we gather bright and beautiful flowers—to-morrow they are faded and dead.

To-day a wreath of leaves shade us—to-morrow, sear and fallen, they crumble beneath our tread.

To-day the earth is covered with a carpet of green—to-morrow it is brown with the withered grass.

To-day the vigorous stalk only bends before the grain—to-morrow "the land is taking its Sabbath after the toil."

To-day we hear sweet songsters of meadow and forest, the buzz and hum of myriad insects; to-morrow—breathe softly—all nature is hushed and silent.

To-day a stately edifice, complete in finish and surroundings, attracts the passer-by—to-morrow a heap of ruins mark the site.

To-day there are cattle on a thousand hills—to-morrow they fall in slaughter.

The fashion of the world passeth away.—But let Christ dwell within us, and though we may pass away like the faded leaf and the sapless stalk, we shall "arise to newness of life,"

Where everlasting spring abides,
And never withering flowers.

A good story is told of one of the baggage masters at a station between Worcester and Boston, a fat, good-natured, droll fellow, whose jokes have become quite popular on the road. His name is Bill. A few mornings since, while in the performance of his duties in changing baggage, an ugly little Scotch terrier got in his way, and he gave him a smart kick which sent him over the track yelping. The owner of the dog soon appeared in high dudgeon, wanting to known why he kicked his dog.

"Was that your dog?" asked Bill in his usual drawl.

"Certainly it was; what right had you to kick him?"

"He's mad," said Bill.

"No he's not either," said the owner.

"Well, I should be if anybody kicked me that way," responded Bill.

UPS AND DOWNS OF FORTUNE.—Two men who were instrumental in discovering sources of incalculable wealth to the country, and in enriching thousands of individuals, are to-day in next to indigent circumstances, and one, at least, is in fact appealing to the nation they were in a measure the means of enriching for pecuniary relief. Gen Sutter, of California, whose name is inseparably connected with the discovery of the gold fields in that State, and on whose farm the precious deposits were first discovered, is in Washington. His sole dependence consists of a small pension, granted by the State of California, and the object of his visit to the Atlantic States is to seek Congressional relief. Mr. Drake, who first discovered oil in Pennsylvania, it seems, did not "strike oil," in the metaphorical sense, for he is to-day in a state of destitution.

LITTLE THINGS.—Springs are little things, but they are sources of large streams; a helm is a little thing, but it governs the course of a ship; a bridle-bit is a little thing, but see its use and powers; nail and pegs are little things, but they hold the parts of a large building together; a word, a look, a smile, a frown, are all little things, but powerful for good or evil. Think of this and mind the little things. Pay little debts; if it is a promise, redeem it; if it is a shilling hand it over. You know not what important events hang upon it. Keep your word sacred—keep it to children; they will mark it sooner than any one else, and the effect will probably be as lasting as life. Mind the little things.

There is no stronger evidence of the falsehood of the assertion that Southern people are opposed to settlers among them coming from the North, than the fact that the South is constantly urging such to come. At a late meeting of the citizens of Canton, Mississippi, the following resolution was unanimously passed:—"Resolved, That we say to the people of the North and West, unite with us in restoring to our benighted country its formor prosperiiy; that we have here abundance of cleared land, capable of producing the most valuable staple in the world, and that we cordially invite them to settle these lands with their families."

The New Yorker in his laudations of his governor said that De Witt Clinton was a very shrewd and long headed man. "Vell," replies the Dutchman, "Governor Schneider hasn't such a berry long head, but it is berry tick.

A NEGRO MILITIA BILL.

The present iniquitous Congress, in order, if possible, to add to its infamy, has passed a bill authorizing the "reconstructed" governments of the Southern States, to arm and equip militia forces, which means, of course, that the negroes shall have the bayonet to keep the white man quiescent under their usurped domination. In Tennessee and Arkansas examples of this policy have already been given. Assassination, arson and pillage are the order of the day in those two states. The newspapers are filled with accounts of outrages perpetrated daily by the militia of Arkansas, and the peaceful inhabitants of that state are fleeing from their homes to save their lives from the assassins enrolled under the orders of the bogus governor Clayton. Congress now aims to make this state of affairs universal throughout the South. Will the demon which possesses that body never be exorcised? Where is the "peace" that was promised us with Grant's election? Are bills to arm the Southern negroes a part of the programme which the people were led to expect would be followed by the new administration? Is Grant to make a howling wilderness of the conquered South and call that "peace?" It would seem so. Yet these things are not what those men who supported Grant as a moderate man, a generous soldier, were induced to believe would come in the event of his election. They were told that he would discard the counsels of the ultra men of the Radical party, that he would not favor a negro despotism in the Southern states, sustained by federal legislation. Grant must either refuse to lie upon the bed which the Fortieth Congress is preparing for him, or he must disappoint thousands of his supporters at the late election, especially that large body of conservative men who voted for him because they had served with him and under him in the army. Having suffered himself to be made a tool in the hands of the Radical party in the late election, we can scarcely hope that he will act independently as the executive officer of the government. Time will show. Meanwhile, let the people unite for that restoration of the Constitution which will surely come, no matter who stands in its way.

THE DEFICIENCIES.

The following exposure of Radical wastefulness, in the recent message of the President, accounts in part, for the malignity and virulence of the assaults which are constantly made on him:

The estimates of the War Department for the last two fiscal years were, for 1867, $33,814,461, and for 1868, $25,205,669. The actual expenditures during the same periods were respectfully, $95,224,415 and $123,246,648. The estimate submitted in December last for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1869, was $77,124,707; the expenditure for the first quarter ending the 30th of September last, were $27,219,116, and the Secretary of the Treasury gives $66,000,000 as the amount which will probably be required during the remaining three-quarters, if there should be no reduction of the army—making its aggregate cost for the year considerably in excess of ninety three millions. The difference between the estimates and expenditures for three fiscal years which have been named is thus shown to be $175,545,343 for this single branch of the public service.

It will not be forgotten how exultantly the radicals referred to the reduced appropriations made in the last session of Congress, in proof that they were at last about to enter on the long promised career of economy and retrenchment. They triumphantly presented an array of figures to show how they had cut down the expenses of the army, and of all other branches of the public service. But when the little supplementary bill for deficiencies shall be presented the present session, the full extent of radical deception will be revealed.

The democrats, however, were not deceived by the tricks of the radicals. They insisted that the appropriation bill was cooked up to deceive the people as to the enormous extent of wastefulness, and that the deficiency bill would prove it. The radical leaders did not dare enter the presidential campaign with the true condition of financial affairs laid before the country, and they therefore, like bankrupt railroad managers, doctored up accounts which they knew to be fraudulent. The appropriation bill of last session, so far from being anything like a true exhibit of public expenditure, was nothing but a lying radical campaign document. It served its purpose. The radicals succeeded in deceiving their followers, and in keeping their hold on the treasury. The next deficiency bill will disclose the full extent of the deception.

THE LEGISLATURE of this State met on Tuesday, 5th, at 12, M. Dr. Wilmer Worthington was elected Speaker of the Senate and John Clark Speaker of the House. The old clerks in both houses were re-elected.

THE RADICAL BRAGGARTS AND THE STATE DEBT.

Gov. Geary has issued a proclamation setting forth the amount of the State debt redeemed by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund from the first Monday in September 1867, till the thirtieth of November, 1868. The Governor informs the public that during these fifteen months just $2,414,816-24 of the State debt were redeemed. This proclamation is made the occasion of much boasting, on the part of the radical press, concerning the wonderful financial management of radical officials in general and Governor Geary's administration in particular. Of course the "rural Caffres" who don't stop to look beneath the surface, but imagine that everything is gold that glitters, are in ecstacies over the statement made in this proclamation. Our readers will see its hollowness when we give it this slight puncture with our pen.

The Sinking Fund was established just ten years ago, by an act of the Legislature (see Purdon's Digest, page 914) which provides as follows:

"For the purpose of paying the present indebtedness and the interest thereon, and such further indebtedness as may hereafter be contracted on the part of the commonwealth, the following revenues and incomes are hereby specifically appropriated and set apart, to wit: The net annual income of the public works that are now, or may hereafter be owned by the commonwealth, and the proceeds of the sale of the same heretofore made, and the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the State, and all revenues derived from the following sources, to wit:

From bank charters and dividends.

Taxes assessed on corporations and all the sources of revenue connected therewith.

The tax on taverns, eating-houses, restaurants, distilleries, breweries, retailers, pedlars, brokers, theatres, circuses, billiard and bowling saloons, ten pin alleys and patent medicine licenses.

On theatrical, circus and menagerie exhibitions.

On auction commissions and duties.

On writs, wills, deeds, mortgages, letters of attorney and all instruments of writing, entered of record, on which a tax is assessed.

On public officers and all others on which a tax is levied.

On foreign insurance companies.

On enrollment of laws.

On pamphlet laws.

On loans of money at interest.

All fines, forfeitures and penalties.

Revenues derived from the public lands.

The excess of militia tax over expenditures.

Militia tax.

Tonnage tax paid by railroads.

Escheats.

Collateral inheritance tax.

Accrued interests.

Refunded cash, and all gifts, grants, or bequests, or the revenue derived therefrom, that may be made to the State and not otherwise directed.

The receipts at the Treasury, from the sources above enumerated, were, for the year 1867, $5,021,232,01. During the present year they have been at least as much, and doubtless, largely in excess of last year. During the fifteen months for which the report of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund is made, the receipts at the Treasury from the above mentioned sources, were not less than $6,250,000.00. We refer to the statistics of the Auditor General's report to bear us out in this statement. Now, let it be borne in mind that the law requires that every cent of the moneys received at the State Treasury from the above-named sources, shall go into the Sinking Fund for the purpose of paying the State debt. Hence, during the fifteen months ending Nov. 30th, 1868, there were in the Sinking Fund

Applicable to the payment of the State debt	$6,250,000.00
Amount of debt paid during that period	2,414,816.74
Not applied to payment of the debt	$3,835,183.36

What has become of the $3,835,183.36 received at the Treasury, payable to the Sinking Fund, and not applied to the extinguishment of the State Debt? Is the Sinking Fund robbed of millions of dollars annually to defray the expenses of the government, and to make the people believe that their taxes have been reduced?

Before our Radical friends indulge in further boasting, will they please explain this little discrepancy between the amount of the State debt redeemed and the sum provided by the people for its redemption? At the same time, they might as well inform the tax-payers that under Democratic rule the State paid but 4, 4½ and 5 per cent. on its loans, whilst under the administration of Gov. Geary it pays 6 per cent. on the bulk of its indebtedness. When they shall have performed these little tasks, they may go on with their manufacture of cheap thunder for the gubernatorial campaign. Until then the people will respond to their boasting, with the derisive shout, Vive la Humbug.

APPEAL IN BEHALF OF THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT.

The following appeal in behalf of the Monument Association, by the officers, commends itself to the patriotic in all parts of the land:

WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT OFFICE, Dec. 26, 1868.

To the Editors of the Express:

GENTLEMEN—By order of the Society, I respectfully request that you will give such insertion as you may think proper in your journal of the accompanying appeal. Very respectfully, JOHN CARROLL BRENT, Secretary.

WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT SOCIETY, Dec. 25, 1868.

Reverend and Dear Sirs:

In pursuance of a resolution of the Washington National Monument Society, we, the officers of the society, respectfully request you to cause collections, for the benefit of the monument, to be taken up in your respective congregations on the Sunday immediately preceding the 22d of February next, and remit the amounts to the treasurer of the society. A very small sum from each congregation will, in the aggregate, insure the immediate resumption of work on the monument, and, with the expected aid from other sources, it is hoped that in a few years it will be completed.

The veneration in which the memory of Washington is held by the American people renders a studied appeal to their patriotism unnecessary, and we therefore simply make known to you the request of the society, confidently believing that you will cordially co-operate with them in the noble work.

Very respectfully, your ob't servants,

ANDREW JOHNSON, President ex officio.
S. J. BOWEN, First Vice President ex officio.
U. S. GRANT, Second Vice President.
W. W. CORCORAN, Third Vice President.
J. B. H. SMITH, Treasurer.
J. CARROLL BRENT, Sec'y.

The secretary respectfully requests that editors and publishers of newspapers through the country favorable to the call will publish the above appeal.

A GENERAL AMNESTY PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 24.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The President of the United States has heretofore set forth several proclamations, offered amnesty and pardon to pesons who had been or were concerned in the late rebellion against the lawful authority of the Government of the United States, which proclamations were severally issued on the 8th day of December, 1863, on the 26th day of May, 1865, on the 7th day of September, 1867, and on the 4th day of July in present year; and

Whereas, The authority of the Federal Government having been re-established in all the States and Territories within the jurisdiction of the United States, it is believed that such prudential reservations and exceptions as at the dates of said several proclamations were deemed necessary and proper may now be wisely and justly relinquished, and that an universal amnesty and pardon for anticipation in said rebellion extended to all who have borne any part therein, will tend to secure permanent peace, order, and prosperity throughout the land and to renew and fully restore confidence and fraternal feeling among the whole people, and their respect for and attachment to the national Government, designed by its patriotic founders for the general good:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the Constitution and in the name of the sovereign people of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare unconditionally and without reservation, to all and to every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, a full pardon and amnesty for the offence of treason against the United States or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with restoration of all rights, privileges, and immunities under the Constitution and the laws which have been made in pursuance thereof.

In testimony whereof I have signed these presents with my hand and have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Done at the city of Washington, the twenty-fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the independence of the United States of America the ninety-third. ANDREW JOHNSON.

By the President, F. W. SEWARD, Acting Secretary of State.

The full pardon and amnesty proclamation just issued by President Johnson, includes Jefferson Davis, Breckenridge, Jacob Thompson, Mason, Slidell, and all others who were directly or indirectly engaged in the late insurrection or rebellion. The parties above named are now in foreign countries.

SALES OF MERCHANDISE.—It is stated that the annual sales of merchandise in Boston amount to nearly $1,000,000,000. This is second to the sales of New York. Other American cities report aggregate sales as follows, Philadelphia, $662,000,000; New Orleans, $526,000,000; Chicago, $342,000,000; Baltimore, $324,000,000; Cincinnati, $213,000,000; St. Louis, $213,000,000; San Francisco, $151,000,000; Louisville, $126,000,000; Milwaukie, $[illegible]000,000. None of the remaining cities reach $100,000,000 of sales annually.

NAPOLEON'S TENURE OF OFFICE. Twenty years have passed since the present Emperor of the French was elected President of the French republic, that election having taken place on the 10th of December, 1848. Already the Second Bonaparte has held power longer than most of the living monarchs of Europe. A new generation has sprung up since he has been at the head of the French nation, and all the European sovereigns who at first viewed him as an adventurer have admitted him to equality.

(Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.)

Effect of the President's Amnesty Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, January 1.—The effect of the President's amnesty proclamation is yet the subject of argument and doubt among Congressmen and others, and it is asked, "Does the proclamation remit or cancel all penalties, and relieve against all disabilities?"

Among competent judges, there does not appear to be any doubt that it can be pleaded in bar to pending criminal prosecutions, and that it is within the power and province of the Executive to pardon, whether before or after a judicial conviction; but does the proclamation relieve as to the disabilities described in the new amendment to the constitution—the fourteenth?

This is the mooted question: May those who participated in the rebellion now hold office and vote; are the disabilities provided in the 14th amendment intended as penalties; and if so, does not the Paesident's pardon obliterate and remove the penalty?

In answer it is claimed by some that notwithstanding the recently adopted fourteenth amendment, which provides for the removal of disabilities by a two-thirds vote of Congress, the President's power is complete, and his pardon under the second article of the constitution accomplishes exactly what the Congress may do by a two-thirds vote; that the fourteenth admendment does not repeal the second article of the constitution, but at most only gives Congress concurrent power with the Executive in the subject named; that under the amendment Congress may do this thing by a two-thirds vote.

Under the second article, the executive can by his pardon, accomplish the same result.

Such is the substance of the argument held by some officials, legal men and Congressmen, and there is so much conflict of opinion on this important subject that in all probability there will be no definite settlement of it until a judicial decision shall be had.

A hundred dollars invested in a good insurance company is better to a poor man than a year's hard earnings burried away in the vaults of a savings bank. In a savings bank there is the danger of bad investments, of the depreciation of securities, of a panic in the money market, of a war. The rate of interest is generally low, and the immediate advantage is small. But in an insurance company any man, however poor, can put away a small sum—say four cents a day for a young man—and assure his family, in the event of his death, at least a thousand dollars. Nor is there any savings bank, however well managed, that can be as safe as an Insurance Company like the National, recently organized under the laws of Congress. Its capital is a million of dollars. Its directors are men of national reputation, and its plan is one of the simplest and most comprehensive in the country. With a Company like this in existence, and the necessity pressing upon every man—no matter what his station in life, whether rich or poor—to do something for those dependent upon him, neglect is a crime. No one can foresee the uncertain chances of life. The princely merchant may die as poor as the porter who sweeps his counting-room, and it is his duty to make a provision for those whom he loves, far removed from the contingency of life or the peril of business. This new Company strikes us as one of the best—if not the best—in the country, and no prudent man can fail to take advantage of the opportunities it offers.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—The Pianoforte has long been the popular home and concert instrument, yet in point of swelling and sustaining the tones it is extremely defective. On account of this deficiency, music written in chords or in a connected style, cannot be satisfactorily executed, as the long notes result in diminuendos where they should be sustained. The taste for the Organ and orchestral style of music is being rapidly developed, and widely diffused—and the time is approaching, when the demand for this sustained style of music will supersede the present Piano compositions. There are no instruments capable of such fine expression in this style of music as the American Organs manufactured by Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston. Their delicacy and variety in the voicing renders them susceptible of beautiful orchestral effects by the skillful use of the tremolo and the improved knee swell, while the deep manual subbass which is added to the new styles, gives the closest resemblance to the pipe organ.—Boston Journal.

SPECULATING IN BREADSTUFFS.—The New England Farmer gives the following account of the recent corner in the corn market:

"A little party of men visited Chicago a month or two ago, with perhaps about half a million dollars at command, and began privately buying up all the corn in the market, contracting for its delivery in thirty days. The contractors, not thinking that a "corner" was forming, neglected to buy corn with which to fulfil their contracts until the month was nearly ended, and then, to their surprise, found an alarming scarcity in the market. The price began to rise as the time of delivery approached, and the contractors grew more alarmed at their prospects, and bid still higher for the quantity needed. Before the hour of filling the contracts arrived, corn was held at $1.-15, and many prominent dealers were ruined. When the hour struck the price dropped to 91¼ cents, and the "corner" was ended. The president of the board of trade, was the first to go under, with reported liabilities for 300,000 bushels of corn, or some $20,000. Other commission men have been dropping by the way since, and the aggregate loss and distress was very large. The sharp and unscrupulous manipulators of the "corner" made from $100,000 to $300,000, and many outside the "ring" who were fortunate enough to hold their grain and sell it at the right time, also made handsome sums. About one hundred thousand dollars are required to make a "corner" on wheat, and from one-half to three-quarters of a million on corn.

BUILDING IN BALTIMORE AND PHILADELPHIA.—During the year just closed, 4,109 new buildings were erected in Philadelphia, of which 71 were four-story, 2,361 three-story and 1,664 two-story. The number of buildings erected in Baltimore the past year was 2,878, the population being estimated at about 300,000. Philadelphia claims at least 800,000; hence the building in Baltimore the past year has, according to population, largely exceeded that of Philadelphia.

A LETTER FROM MISS KATE.

BEDFORD, PA., Dec. 20th, 1868.

DEAR MARY:—I received your letter of the 20th and as requested, attended to your "shopping." Do you remember our "shopping" expedition during your visit to Bedford, last summer. Well, H. F. Irvine, of the Regulator, is now, as then, unrivalled for variety, choice and cheapness of all kinds of Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Slippers, Groceries, Queensware, Glassware, Notions, &c., of new and beautiful styles. Believe me, dear Mary, the ladies of Bedford and vicinity fully understand their husbands' and papas' interests in giving H. F. Irvine so large a share of their patronage as they have been doing for years. Their honest advice to their friends is now, as ever, for choice of the market at the lowest prices go to H. F. Irvine, where goods are received weekly. Enclosed please find a receipted bill of goods purchased for you. They are much handsomer, and at prices at least 20 per cent. lower than I could find elsewhere. Hoping all will be satisfactory, I remain your friend, KATE.

THE POOR HOUSE QUESTION.—At the late term of court a petition from a number of citizens was presented, asking the court to issue a preliminary injunction to restrain the County Commissioners from incurring any further expense in the erection of the proposed new Alms House. This the court refused to do because complainants had not filed the necessary bond of $10,000 to indemnify the contractor, &c. Bills in Equity were duly filed, and upon these the court—Judge Rowe on the bench—ordered the injunction to issue. This, of course, stops all efforts to erect a new alms house. The case may be taken to the Supreme Court, and if the opinion of the court below be reversed, the work will go on, otherwise not.

CEMETERY CONCERT.—The concert and festival for the benefit of the Bedford Cemetery Association, which was held last week, was a successful affair. Those who were fortunate enough to be present aver that it was decidedly the best entertainment ever given to the good people of Bedford. About $230 were realized for beautifying the Bedford Cemetery.

CARRIER'S ADDRESS to the patrons of the BEDFORD GAZETTE, January 1, 1869:

Dear friends, you'll not expect me,
In my very juvenile verse,
Much of the past year's doings
At this time to rehearse.
For to your doors I've weekly
Brought all the current news,
And if you didn't read it
'Twas that you didn't choose.

You certainly do remember
Events within a year
That did befall the tenants
Of this sublunar sphere.
I'll only jog your memory
Concerning a very few;
'Tis well to think on the Old Year
As we begin the New.

I've read in Peter Parley,
Of many cruel wars,
Of fire and blood and carnage
That mark'd the world with scars.
These things in times barbaric
The human race befel,
Turning God's beautiful foot-stool
Into a raging hell.
Since then the christian era,
Has dawn'd the storm to still,
With Peace the ruling principle,
And toward men Good Will.
Now, look you through the year that's gone,
And tell me, does the age
Fulfil the Christian doctrine,
Or repeat old Parley's page?

From where the bright LaPlata
His silver billows rolls,
To where the waning Crescent
Gleams o'er the Cretan knolls;
From Erin's emerald headlands,
To faction-rent Japan;
How much of man's humanity
Is there toward his fellow man?
Alas! the same old story
Of battle, spoil and rage,
Of Lust and Fraud and Tyranny,
Mar the historic page.

In the Old World king-craft struggles
To hold its blood stain'd thrones,
The Eastern gales are laden
With the suffering people's groans.
The bayonet props the power
Of monarchies effete
And the people toil and perish
To support the bayonet.
But Spain has burst the shackles
That bound her far too long,
And the Castilian valleys
Now ring with freedom's song.
Old Ireland, too, is giving
Her enemies hot work,
And Crete is springing from the wave
To free her from the Turk.

And in this Great Republic,
This proud land of the free,
The vampire Reconstruction
Kills the bird of Liberty.
Beneath the once broad ægis
Of the fundamental law,
Whereat the nations wondered
As its perfectness they saw,
Millions of people languish,
In civil slav'ry bound;
So that their shameful bondage
May to party ends redound.
Five hundred thousand white men,
American citizens born,
Of every right they hold most dear
By usurpation shorn!
Five hundred thousand white men,
Americans as we,
Denied the right of the ballot,
'Neath the banner of the free!
Whilst in the halls where Pinckney
And Jefferson gave laws,
And Washington and Henry
Upheld a righteous cause,
Half-barbarous negroes sit and rule
The now degraded state,
Whilst Federal bayonets execute
The Radical's vengeful hate.
Oh! shame, where is the face of brass
That wears no mantling blush?
Oh! Justice, where the coward heart
That does not burn to crush
The infamous cabal that sways
So bold the tyrant's rod?
Look down upon a people's wrongs,
O just and righteous God!

Now, let the New Year bring us,
A new and bright regime;
An era that shall grandly
The gloomy Past redeem.
Now, let our strifes be buried,
Our prejudices cease,
Our bick'rings and heart-burnings
Give place to perfect peace.
Let Winter's falchion icy
Smite cold the heart of Hate;
And from this blessed morning,
Let Love's dominion date.
Then may ye answer truly,
Amen! as ye shall hear
The pleasant, hearty greeting
Of a happy, glad New Year.

THE CARRIER.

NEW LAMP TOP.—Irvine, the enterprising man of the Regulator establishment, has just received a large supply of beautiful coal oil lamps with new and improved tops and chimneys, which far surpass anything we have ever seen in the lamp line, together with a new style of lamp shades. Everybody should have one. Call and see them. Tops and shades to fit all sizes of kerosene lamps.

CORN CAPTURED.—Corn theives appear to be operating successfully in the upper end of the county. A number of farmers about Schellsburg report heavy losses lately, as high as twenty and thirty bushels having been taken in a single night. Farmers, secure your grain, as there is a prospect of a long winter ahead.

From the army hospital; the bloody battle-field, the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk; from the mountain-top, distant valley and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world, is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of Drake's Plantation Bitters. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

* * * * I have been in the Army Hospital for fourteen months, speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. Three bottles have made me a well man. C. H. FLAUTE.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

HUNTINGDON, Dec. 30, 1868.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—We notice in the Inquirer, some lying remarks made by its editor in reference to one of our agents who is now canvassing your county, not in the interest of the Democratic Party, but of humanity. He says first this agent is a New Englander, which would be no crime, (although it is not true) except that he was a member of the Radical Party. We are astonished at the impudence of this editor to cast reflections upon a section of country from which emanate all the ideas of Radicalism and from which he and all such silly mongrel editors receive their political instructions.

He says further that "the agent, though an entire stranger in the community, is thoroughly posted as to the whereabouts of every disciple of the lost cause" and can readily distinguish the object of his search from a Radical Republican, and this editor seems astonished at this fact. We would just say here that we would not employ a man to work for us, who we thought could not readily distinguish an honest man and Democrat from the editor of the mongrel sheet of Bedford. This dirty mongrel, whose patriotism was first strong enough to give him rheumatism of the hip joint, which prevented his shouldering a musket and marching to the front, as he no doubt was anxious to do, seems to be greatly disturbed for fear too many of the honest people of Bedford, who are anxious to read truth, may patronize our agent, and, therefore, sounds the alarm, by calling their attention to the conduct of an eastern gent, who some time since, it is represented, swindled the good people of your county, and who (as we are informed on good authority) was a full blooded Black Republican, and, therefore, had just honor enough to take advantage of the people. He further calls our agent "the Negro Supremacy book man," forgetting the fact that Radicals like himself alone advocate the supremacy of the Black Race, whilst Democrats believe in the superiority of the Caucasian over all other races and especially over the Negro Race; and for this reason, advocate just what our book advocates, white supremacy and Negro subordination. Of course, we do not contend that some niggers are not just as intelligent, and many of them more honorable, than this Radical editor.

He says further that our agent was defrauding the government by "doing business without license." Our agent supposed that he was not liable to take out license, and telegraphed us on this point. We are quite sure he is honest, even if he does not fully understand all the requirements of the Abolition revenue swindle. We presume that the $10.00 paid by our man, goes towards paying off the $2,200,000 given to our Radical Representatives in congress for their votes and influence in making the Alaska appropriation, and toward hundreds of other items, equally villainous, perpetrated by our Radical congress and which have swelled the debt to its enormous size.

But even if our agent did try to swindle the government, he did no more than this same Radical editor, who cheated the government out of his loyal services, which were needed in the front, during the war, by limping along the streets of Bedford, making the citizens believe that he was afflicted with Chronic Rheumatism, and he did no more than Radical Bondholders, who coined all their money out of the blood and sufferings of the people, and by their fraud and villainy helped heap up this enormous debt, and now have the brazen impudence to exact an exorbitant interest on their bonds, while they sit carelessly looking on, and not paying one cent toward lightening the burden of an oppressed people.

This editor further states that the Democrats of Bedford county have realized that their doctrines are false, by the ignominious defeat of their candidates; he means, of course, because the Radical Party polled a few more votes, through fraud, than the Democratic Party polled. This same argument, if argument it is, proves that the teachings of the Bible are false, because the great majority of the people, including this Radical editor and our Radical congress serve the Devil instead of worshiping God.

We wish further to inform this small editor (for such we have always considered him to be) that the people of Bedford county don't seem at all likely to take his advice, as our agent's reports show, either because they don't read his paper, or if they do because they can have no confidence in any advice given by a Radical Republican, who will shirk duty by feigning Rheumatism, knowing full well that men who have done so much to overthrow the constitution of their country, and to destroy and trample on the rights and liberties of the people, are not safe advisors under any circumstances.

Please, Mr. Radical Editor, give us another piff in your able paper; some of your friends are already patronizing our agent, and many more will seek "Democratic Literature" in less than twelve months.

AND

SEWING MACHINE,

Its Wonderful Popularity Conclusive Proof of its Great Merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been TEN FOLD during the last seven months of its first year before the public.

OUR NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.
SCHEETZ'S
CELEBRATED
BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. ☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known
